FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS & PROGRAM INFO
WHAT IS FEDERAL WORK STUDY?

The Federal Work Study (FWS) Program is designed to provide part-time, temporary employment to eligible students. Your employment will be scheduled around your classes.

FWS ALLOWS STUDENTS TO EARN MONEY TO HELP PAY EDUCATION EXPENSES.

TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR FWS, YOU MUST:

- Be a current student enrolled in 6 credit hours
- Meet and maintain Federal Financial Aid eligibility requirements

FWS awards are determined by the Financial Aid Office

HOW MUCH CAN I EARN?

You’ll earn at least the current federal minimum wage. However, you may earn more depending on the type of work you do and the skills required for the position.

Please note: the total amount listed on your FWS award is what you COULD earn, not what you will earn.

HOW MANY HOURS CAN I WORK?

You may work up to, but no more than 20 hours per week. Hours vary by department or agency and are determined by their needs. The amount you work cannot exceed your total FWS award. Should you deplete your Federal Work Study award, contact Financial Aid.

FWS

Federal Work Study is considered a real job, and you are expected to work your scheduled hours. Emergencies and extenuating circumstances will be considered on a case by case basis. If possible, contact your supervisor prior to or soon after being late or absent for work. Excessive absences and tardiness will result in termination of employment.

WHEN AM I PAID?

Payment of work study wages is made twice a month. See your supervisor for the pay schedule.

WHERE DO I WORK?

All work study students are employed through Blue Ridge CTC. While the majority of positions are located on campus, there are a growing number of off campus community service positions.

Accepting FWS on your BRIDGE account does not guarantee employment. It is up to the hiring supervisor to select students. Review the procedure for securing a FWS position outlined in this brochure.

WHEN DO I WORK?

Hours are scheduled based on the supervisor’s need. Student’s class schedules are taken into consideration. When Blue Ridge CTC is closed, students do not
