WHAT IS FEDERAL WORK STUDY?

Federal Work Study is a form of Student Employment and is considered a real job.

Students:
- Are employed through Blue Ridge CTC
- Are expected to work when scheduled
- May be terminated for excessive absences and/or tardiness
- Are not guaranteed employment

For additional information regarding policies and procedures, please refer to the Student Employment Handbook available on Blue Ridge CTC website.

FWS ALLOWS STUDENTS TO EARN MONEY TO HELP PAY EDUCATION EXPENSES.

TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR FWS, YOU MUST:
- Be a current student enrolled in at least 6 credit hours.
- Meet and maintain Federal Financial Aid eligibility requirements.

FWS awards are determined by the Financial Aid Office

FAQ

WHEN AM I PAID?
Payment of work study wages is made twice a month.

WHERE DO I WORK?
While the majority of positions are located on campus, there are a growing number of off campus community service positions.

Accepting FWS on your BRIDGE account does not guarantee employment.

WHEN DO I WORK?
While students’ class schedules are taken into consideration, hours are scheduled based on the supervisor’s need. Also, when Blue Ridge CTC is closed, students do not report to their FWS site (on or off campus) including school holidays, school closures due to inclement weather, and Sundays.

HOW MUCH CAN I EARN?
Pay for FWS positions is contingent upon the student employment position classification and pay scale. All positions pay an hourly wage rate at least the Federal and/or State minimum wage, whichever is greater. Hours vary by department/agency and are determined by their needs.

Finally, the total amount listed on your FWS award is what you COULD earn, not necessarily what you will earn. The amount you work cannot exceed your total FWS award. Once you have exhausted the FWS amount, you may contact the financial aid office to determine if additional funds are available.
