Congratulations, Graduates!!

It's (literally!) hats off to those whose diligent academic work is finally paying off. But, what feels like an ending is often a beginning. Smart new grads will likely be looking ahead to what comes next. Perhaps transferring to a four-year university? Entering the job market? Starting a new business? Leo Tolstoy once said that spring is a time of planning and projects. So, this spring, as you leave our doors, keep moving towards your next project, and keep on learning! And graduates, as you cross that stage to receive your well-earned diploma, know that you take with you our best wishes for all of the success you can fit in your cap!

Master Chef 2-Day Bread Workshop

Tuesday and Wednesday, June 12-13

9 am - 2 pm

$200 per person

9 spots available

Clientele: Adults

In this workshop, you will learn how to create professional and delicious fresh breads for a farmers' market or restaurant. This would be a wonderful class for the beginner, even if you just wish to make bread as a hobby. Lunch included.

Three-Day Culinary Workshop

Monday through Wednesday, June 18 - 20

9 am - 2 pm each day

$89 per person

9 spots available

Clientele: Recent High School Grads

Join Chef Steve Weiss and Chef Lara Cramer for this three-day workshop, which serves as an overview of the Culinary Arts programs offered by BRCTC. This workshop introduces students to an industrial kitchen; the basics of culinary arts, baking, and meal production; knife skills; sanitation, and other foundational culinary skills.

This is just the Beginning

Below is a collection of some of the best—and worst—graduation wisdom. Ever.

"It is impossible to live without failing at something, unless you live so cautiously that you might as well not have lived at all—in which case, you fail by default." J.K. Rowling

"A graduation ceremony is an event where the commencement speaker tells thousands of students dressed in identical caps and gowns that "individuality" is the key to success." Robert Orben

"The tassel's worth the hassle!" Unknown

"Do not follow where the path may lead. Go, instead, where there is no path and leave a trail."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Obstacles are those frightful things you see when you take your eyes off your goal." Henry Ford

"Minds are like parachutes - they only function when open." Thomas Dewar

"The only place where success comes before work is in the dictionary." Vidal Sassoon

"There is no elevator to success. You have to take the stairs." Unknown

"You can fail at what you don't want, so you might as well take a chance on doing what you love."
Jim Carrey

"No matter where you go, there you are." Anonymous

"Be consistent: Nothing is really over until the moment you stop trying." Brian Dyson

"It doesn't matter that your dream came true if you spent your whole life sleeping." Jeff Zucker

"You never know what is around the corner unless you peek." Amy Poehler

"Just remember, you can't climb the ladder of success with your hands in your pockets."
Arnold Schwarzenegger

"Believe anything is possible and then work like hell to make it happen." Julianna Margulies

"Failure is merely a dress rehearsal for future success." Larry Bock

"The secret to getting ahead is getting started." Unknown

"You are never too old to set another goal or to dream a new dream." C.S. Lewis

"If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door." Milton Berle

"We don't stop going to school when we graduate." Carol Burnett

In the News: Blue Ridge CTC Rotaract

Little Free Libraries

BRCTC Rotaract is proud to announce the introduction of its Little Free Library. The Little Free Library program is a "take a book, return a book" free book exchange. The Blue Ridge Rotaract group purchased two libraries, one for the Main Campus and one for the Technology Center. The Little Free Library is a way to educate, to encourage reading, and to share some of your favorite readings with the community.

Jared Kuse, of BRCTC Rotaract, says that his club "believes in further growing and expanding [the] community, which is why the idea of obtaining Little Free Libraries became something [they] all loved. Everyone thought this was an imaginative and enjoyable way to share the love of reading." Everyone can participate in the Little

Free Libraries program by donating a book or by just taking one out to read. Students, staff, and community members are welcome to come by and enjoy being part of the literacy program.

Presidential Citation

On Thursday, November 30, 2017, BRCTC Rotaract received the Presidential Citation Award. To receive this certification, a Rotaract club needs to support and strengthen its community. BRCTC Rotaract received the Presidential Citation Award for its work on several projects in 2017, including the Attire for Hire project, Interact/Rotaract Mixer, United Way Day of Caring, CCAP Loaves and Fishes Food Drive, Water & Sanitation Awareness Event, and the Pancakes for Polio

Breakfast. Supporting local communities and assisting those who are most in need are just a few of the benefits that Rotary offers.

PREPARE FOR THE JOB MARKET

Develop a Strong Resume and Cover Letter

It has been noted that recruiters may spend no more than 10-30 seconds reviewing a resume. To be sure that yours is making the best impression possible, use your Blue Ridge website! Clicking on the Office of Career Services link gains you access to resume writing guides, sample resumes, resume critiques, and a cover letter guide. To receive feedback on your work, email careerservices@blueridgectc.edu.

But don't stop there! Blue Ridge can help you begin your job search as well. Just visit www.blueridgectc.edu/jobs and scroll through open positions with area businesses.

Submitting the FAFSA is a complicated process, but it's worth it! Remember: Filing the FAFSA is the single most important step you can take to get financial aid! And it needs to be filed every year you plan to be a student! For assistance, contact Financial Aid: www.blueridgectc.edu/financial-aid.

Diversity: One of Blue Ridge CTC's Core Values

Since 2004, April has been designated "Celebrate Diversity Month" to recognize and honor the diversity surrounding us all. By celebrating each others' differences and similarities each year during this month, national organizers hope that people will gain a deeper understanding of each other.

Here at Blue Ridge CTC, we recognize this issue's importance. So this year, we celebrated Diversity Month with a week of events—April 9th through the 12th—that offered participants opportunities to gain diversity skills and knowledge, along with chances to dialogue about diversity and inclusion issues. Activities and lunchtime workshops provided our students, faculty, and staff an inspirational and informative week designed to advance their ongoing understanding of, and appreciation for, diversity and inclusion.

Monday's "Privilege Walk": This activity was designed to show how societal factors impact our life experiences and opportunities. Many facets of our lives are affected by underlying privileges we may not know exist. Even if we do not realize it, these factors shape our day-to-day lives.

Tuesday's "Tie Dye T-Shirts": What "ties" us all together? Our differences, of course! Dye(versity) is a beautiful thing. [Check out the photos below.]

Wednesday's Lunch and Learn, "Bystander Intervention Training/Prevention Starts with You": This workshop, led by Megan Boone, provided strategies for preventing certain types of violence, including bullying, sexual harassment, sexual assault, and intimate partner violence.

Thursday's "Throwing Out Stigmas": Social stigmas can be attached to any person who differs from societal and cultural norms. But these stigmas are rarely based on facts; they can also be caused by a lack of understanding on the accuser's part.
