DID YOU KNOW?
Suicide is the second leading cause of death in college students

BRCTC Faculty and staff have a duty to warn

- ✓ Title IX is a portion of the Education Amendments of 1972, Public Law No. 92-318, 86 Stat. 235 (June 23, 1972) that states:
- ✓ "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal assistance."
- ✓ Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault are forms of discrimination, therefore all reports of sexual harassment/assault fall under Title IX
- ✓ The College has a duty to promptly respond to complaints of sexual harassment and sexual violence in a way that limits its effects and prevents its recurrence.

Title IX Definitions

Sexual Assault is an act of interpersonal violence that occurs at alarming numbers on college campuses. Victims can be male, female, transgender, heterosexual, homosexual, bisexual, or any other sexual orientation. Sexual assault includes unwanted sexual intercourse, unwanted sexual intrusion, or any form of touching within persons without the consent of that person.

Sexual Harassment is recognized as a form of Sexual Misconduct that creates an unhealthy learning environment. Sexual Harassment is when one person uses sexual words, gestures, looks, or touches that may make another person feel uncomfortable or unsafe.

Stalking is threatening behaviors that one person exhibits towards another without physical contact being present. These actions can make a person feel unsafe in their environment.

Relationship/Domestic Violence is violence between two people in a relationship. There are several different kinds of violence: emotional, physical, sexual, etc. The abuse is about the abuser gaining and maintaining power over the other and can be present in long-term and dating relationships.

How to Report a Title IX Violation

If you feel that you or someone you know has been a victim under Title IX, tell a campus employee or contact the campus Title IX Coordinator

The image shows a large, multi-story brick building with a modern architectural style. The building features numerous large, multi-paned glass windows and glass doors, which reflect the sky and surrounding environment. The brickwork is a reddish-brown color. In the foreground, there is a paved walkway and a small garden bed with red and white flowers. The sky is blue with some light clouds.
