Join Mark Fogel's campaign for Ohio's 6th State Senate district!

We invite you to apply to our remote campaign fellowship and help flip one of Ohio's most competitive State Senate districts from Red to Blue.

Gain experience reaching out to voters, researching, and developing media, all while while learning what it's like to work in a fast-paced campaign environment.

We require at least 10 hours a week for the fellowship. While we are unable to pay fellows, we are happy to work with you to comply with your school's course credit requirements. Applicants should have access to a computer and cell phone.
