* Students interested in pursuing the Physical Therapist Assisting (PTA) program must first enroll at Blue Ridge CTC as a Healthcare Professions student. The PTA program is selective entry and requires students complete a separate application process. Each fall, 20 applicants are selected to begin training.

✦ According to the U.S. Department of Labor Occupational Outlook Handbook (2020), West Virginia is ranked as having the fourth highest concentration of Physical Therapist Assistant jobs available across the country.

~ In West Virginia, PTAs earn a mean hourly wage of $25.68 or an annual mean wage of $53,410 (Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2020).

✦ West Virginia Invests is a state-funded grant program that covers the full cost of basic tuition and fees* for select certificate and associate degree programs at a West Virginia public two- or four-year institution. Learn more by visiting www.blueridgectc.edu/invests
