

CAPABILITIES

Blue Ridge Community and Technical College has the capability to design curriculum to meet the changing needs of business and industry. By customizing training for each partner, Blue Ridge Community and Technical College effectively delivers relevant, high-quality customized training.

College credit is awarded to all participants who successfully complete a training course. Blue Ridge Community and Technical College is continuously evolving to meet the demands of business and industry and works to increase its capabilities as technology progresses and partnerships grow.

CONTACT US TODAY!

Develop a comprehensive and customized training plan to foster workplace and economic development.

KIM MOSS

Director of Customized Training
& Workforce Development

240.329.7022 or kmoss@blueridgectc.edu

VALUE-ADDED BENEFITS INCLUDE

- Customized skills sets, certificates, and Associate in Applied Technology degrees with recognized industry credentials
- Customized training curriculum and instructional delivery by subject matter experts
- Internships and customizable apprenticeship opportunities
- 3-D printing and design services with consultation from Mechatronics and Engineering Technology faculty
- Ability to create an early learning lab
- Access to Career Services activities, including job postings, mock interviews, and College-sponsored job fairs
- Access to Innovation lab space at the Spring Tech Innovation Lab
- Access to state-of-the-art technical labs for advanced manufacturing, precision machining technology, plastics, welding and quality assurance
- Active collaboration with faculty for education and training initiatives
- Assigned customer relationship manager as a College point of contact
- Customizable catering services (including international cuisine) from the Culinary Academy students and nationally recognized chef faculty
- Opportunities for business and industry partners to guest lecture and recruit students
- Prior Learning Assessment and degree completion for employees seeking to complete an Associate degree
- Room use for meetings, interviewing, and testing prospective employees with Saturday access
- Wraparound start up services including incubation space with internet access