A student who does not meet the federal criteria for independent status on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may submit a Dependency Override Request. The U.S. Department of Education (ED) allows a financial aid administrator to make dependency overrides on a case-by-case basis for students with unusual circumstances.

Please note that none of the following conditions qualifies as unusual circumstances:

1. Parents refuse to contribute to your education.
2. Parents are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or verification requests.
3. Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
4. Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.

Unusual circumstances do include abusive family environment or abandonment by parents. In addition to this form, third party documentation is required.

All students applying for a Dependency Override are selected for verification and must submit:

- Personal Statement by Student – Attach a typed personal statement that summarizes the nature of the relationship with biological or legally adopted parents, specific dates of events that caused separation from parents, and how you are supporting yourself.
- Personal Statement by two Third Parties – Attach a statement signed and dated by a third party (e.g. teacher, clergy, social worker, police officer) that summarizes your unusual circumstance and knowledge of your relationship with your parents.
- 2019 Federal Tax Return Transcript (or complete Data Retrieval Tool through the FAFSA)
- 2021-2022 Independent Verification Worksheet
