

Office of Student Financial Aid

The U.S. Department of Education has indicated that you have an unusual enrollment history while receiving Federal financial aid funds. Students who have attended multiple schools and earned Federal financial aid in a short period of time may be considered to have an unusual enrollment history. You must submit your completed Unusual Enrollment History Appeal with all REQUIRED documentation listed below. Appeals submitted with missing documentation or without ALL prior college transcripts will be considered INCOMPLETE and will not be processed.

Last Name	First Name	M.I.	COO
Address			BRCTC ID number

STEP 3: Document Extenuating Circumstances

If you failed to earn academic credit while receiving Federal Financial Aid at one or more of the colleges listed above, the U.S. Department of Education REQUIRES you to explain the circumstances which resulted in your failure to complete academic credits.

- A. You must submit a type-written statement which provides an explanation for your failure to earn academic credit.
- B. Provide third party documentation to support your appeal statement. Circumstances are limited to the reasons below. Appeals submitted without documentation will be considered incomplete and will be denied.
 - Personal injury or illness (must have occurred during semester(s) of academic difficulty) – Requires doctor’s statement, hospital records, or accident/police report
 - Death or serious illness of an immediate family member (parents, grandparents, children, spouse, sibling) – Requires doctor’s statement, hospital records or a death certificate/obituary notice
 - Employment changes – Requires documents to show loss of job or other changes in employment
 - Divorce or separation in the student’s immediate family – Requires divorce/separation documents or letter from lawyer
 - Other – Requires supporting documentation

STEP 4: Certification and Signatures

By signing this form, I certify that all of the information provided on and with this form is true and accurate. I understand that if I do not provide acceptable explanation, including supporting documentation, this appeal may be denied and that the decision is final.
