Review of Special Circumstance Appeal Forms will begin after AFTER June 14, 2025.
The last day for submission of a 2025-2026 Special Circumstance Appeal is March 20, 2026.
Appeals will NOT be accepted after this date.

A Special Circumstances Appeal may be filed if you or your family have extenuating circumstances, which you believe warrant a re-evaluation of your financial aid. If the student's Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) is already zero, the appeal will not be reviewed due to the fact that the student is already eligible for the maximum federal financial aid available. Circumstances may include:

- Loss of employment or change in employment
- Loss or change in untaxed income (child support, Social Security or other benefits)
- Divorce or Separation – Independent students or parents of dependent student
- Death of parent(s) or spouse
- Unusual medical expenses (not covered by health insurance)
- One-time taxable income

All students applying for a Special Circumstance are selected for verification and must submit:
